

Freedom of Expression

The Freedom of Expression and Legal Communication Interest Group welcomes papers or panel submissions that analyze freedom of expression and legal communication issues from a scholarly perspective or discuss pedagogy for teaching in these areas. The interest group accepts diverse research methodologies and welcomes alternative panel formats such as debates or simulations.

Details about paper or panel submissions are on the WSCA website:

Please submit papers or panel proposals (electronically or by mail) by September 1, 2010:
