

Call for 2007 Conference papers for Elementary and Secondary Interest Group:

While the Elementary and Secondary Interest Groups does not traditionally call for competitive papers, the Interest Group does welcome proposals for reports, papers, panels, critical analyses, and/or workshops that focus on relevant topics that focus on K-12 speech communication. Of particular interest are presentations that focus on the impact No Child Left Behind (NCLB) has had on K-12 speech programs, teacher preparation programs, teacher retention, and instruction. Papers that discuss the state of speech communication courses in K-12 education is also of interest.
